*I had to wait for hotel information until local weather permitted the hotel staff to get back to work.

* *Since Don Feely is local, I've asked him to present a session on listening and making evaluations. As he is one of the finest and fairest convention reviewers we have had plus he teaches classes to middle school students about music "listening", this is a wonderful opportunity for the students.

Additional funds for vans will be needed as 2013 vans were free due to mixup by Enterprise Rentals.

Estimated cost of vans is $2,200 including fuel. I am investigating the possibility of having a car dealership sponsorship to provide vans.
